Meet BCG X

BCG and BCG X bring together the best of consulting and the best of tech to accelerate the digital journeys of large organizations.

BCG X acts as a force multiplier for BCG's functional and sector expertise—bringing together more than 3,000 tech talents, to build and scale disruptive, high-impact, software-enabled business solutions.

BCG X Chapters

Data Scientists

Data Scientists build the AI engines that help transform the businesses of our clients. They crack the most difficult problems and implement solutions for our clients.

Experience Design

Experience Design teams will translate concepts into interactions and experiences to enable seamless engagement.

Engineers

Engineers develop software that brings our products to life. They build a broad spectrum of solutions from large-scale AI-driven applications to unique mobile and web-based experiences.

Growth Architects

Growth Architects are world-class practitioners who enable our clients to grow their businesses. They represent our hands-on expertise in digital marketing and tech-driven customer acquisitions.

Product

Product teams will help clients define, design, build, and accelerate digital solutions from ideation to launch, and beyond.

Delivery

BCG X Delivery builds, maintains, and scales BCG X solutions, working with teams around the world to accelerate value and efficiency for the world's leading organizations.
